Let your path find you

Bob Logan

Coach – Teacher – Speaker – Motivator – Leader

Mission Statement

When I speak, I speak from the heart. Being totally transparent and showing ones' own flaws and weaknesses helps for a stronger connection to an audience. After 25 years of relationship building, one learns that an effective, and sometimes emotional message can evoke change in individuals. Our hope is your audience will discover a new-found belief in themselves and be open to a change in their lives. Habits are hard to break, and generally speaking, people are resistant to try new things -- at work, inside the home, or with their spouse or family. It is all about feelings and our time together will be an exercise of the head and the heart. People will have an urge to succeed

– I guarantee it.
