

BOB LOGAN

Let your path find you

Bob Logan has walked many paths in life, both literally and figuratively. He is clearly comfortable taking risks and going against the flow, and he believes whole-heartedly in the transformative power of embracing change. In fact, that is one of his key messages – take the road less traveled, and you will marvel about what you learn from the people, places and opportunities along the journey.

Follow Bob as he shares stories about coaching football in Italy, raising millions of dollars for philanthropy, serving the community through nonprofit board leadership and finally taking the spiritual pilgrimage of the 500-mile Camino de Santiago in Northern Spain.

He provides insights on how to push your own boundaries and approach life from a totally different perspective. He works with your team to truly understand the balancing act of life and feel empowered to live in a dramatically different way.

Bob inspires audiences to:

- ▶ Break away from routines that dominate daily life
- ▶ Journey beyond real and perceived limitations
- ▶ Recognize and embrace what is truly important
- ▶ Live as the very best version of themselves – gaining a happier and more fulfilling life in the process
- ▶ Control what they can control and release everything else
- ▶ See that decisions are often not as risky as they might think
- ▶ Maximize their innate potential and live in the moment

Bob takes the audience through his personal journey of loss, recovery and rediscovery. He believes that building and maintaining strong relationships with family, friends and faith is a cornerstone to happiness and success. His humorous and friendly delivery draws audiences in and wins them over. Join Bob on his journey and you may just find the inspiration to pursue a new path yourself.
